TRAVEL & ACCOMMODATION

Sheepdrove is a working organic farm in Lambourn, Berkshire. It's owned by farmers and environmental campaigners Peter and Juliet Kindersley who have built it up from the dilapidated farmhouse they bought over 40 years ago to the beautiful space you see today. Over time they slowly acquired more land and today Sheepdrove is a thriving organic farm at the heart of the local community.

The eco-conference centre is a perfect addition to the farm and a wonderful alternative to more well-known conference venues in the heart of busy London. It's stunning rural location, wonderful organic food and sympathetic natural architecture make for a truly special event. You'll find travel to and from easy and hassle free as it's just 15 mins from the M4 and 25-30 mins from Hungerford or Newbury stations respectively. We will most likely be running transport from one or both stations. Please let us know if you intend to travel by train. Parking isn't an issue and there are even electric car charging stations for the eco-conscious delegate!

It's a special place and very in keeping with ANH's mission and vision of 'Love Nature, Live Naturally'. We look forward to sharing the day with you.
