FUNDS are urgently needed for legal challenge to EU herb law!

- After April 2011, an EU Directive affecting traditional herbal products comes into full effect in the UK and the rest of the EU
- From this date, many herbal medicines and food supplements containing herbs will become ILLEGAL
- A judicial review (legal challenge) is urgently needed to change the faulty text in the Directive. Our expert lawyers indicate the grounds for challenge are strong...
- YOUR HELP is urgently needed!

Is the judicial review of the EU Directive relevant to me?

The answer is "Yes" if you use products containing herbal ingredients, whether they are herbal medicines or food supplements £90,000 (€103k) is urgently needed to fund the legal costs of the court case.
